

incomplete

today i woke up to myself today i woke up by myself happy rainclouds fail to please when will this sad pain start to ease? when you're not here i'm off my feet i'm without you and without you i'm incomplete

i die like pot plants on your shelf these empty photo frames don't help you left me high and dry now radiohead makes me cry when you're not here i'm incomplete when all the shepherds lose their sheep if i can't count them i can't sleep trams and trains and walking shoes i pretend to read the morning news another days starts and then it ends another heart breaks then it mends when you're not here this bed feels like concrete
