

tall trees

can't hardly wait i'm believing in fate happy tear stain rollercoaster in the rain i'm floating like a balloon i can't wait til june so i'll be flying there soon some people don't see some don't believe in luck and radio songs and ducks in a pond in the dark when stars shine some people are blind some can't read signs now there's a buzz in my head like a bee a whisper in the woods like a song by the leaves we were planting small seeds now we're climbing tall trees i can't hardly wait the buses are all late i'm close to not sane i should've caught a plane now this rain won't leave me alone 'no raincoat' to loan and I can't find a phone she's a buzz in my head like a bee she's naked in the woods she dances like leaves we were planting small seeds now we're climbing

tall trees
small seeds
where are we

i can't hardly wait that mid-december date i'm thinking of ways and i'm counting the days til the good-bye in reverse they say loves a curse but i've felt a lot worse

we were planting small seeds now we're climbing
tall trees
where are we?

i can't hardly wait, til we're climbing tall trees
