

tumble dry

i'm getting old
i've got a few holes in me nothing up my sleeve
give me some time
for a few more stains
hang me out to dry
bring me in when it rains

my seams have come unsewn
it seems i have been outgrown
i was off-white, now i'm off-grey
please don't throw me away

i'm getting thin
this normal spin's not me
i'm so dizzy
my collar is torn
i'm starting to fray
i have been well worn
and worn away

don't stare
don't laugh while i tear don't throw me away
don't tumble me dry
don't laugh while i cry

put me in the shade
so i don't fade away
