

wake myself up i don't have to rise til nine i set my alarm for five you wonder what I do this for so i get a few hours more while you're sleeping

i'm dreaming with both eyes open wide some dreamers sleep in instead this dream's not in my head

i wake myself up
just to fall asleep with you even when you've lost your shine even when I don't quite rhyme even when the sheets are cold as long as I've got someone to hold while you're sleeping

i'm dreaming with both eyes open wide
if i succumb to your lullaby wake me up 'cos i won't mind

i dream when i'm awake
when i'm with you

wake me up 'cos i won't mind

if i could wake myself up i'd wake myself up just to fall asleep with you
